We made things lively yester-day, as promised, and will keep it up to-day, by adding another 900 of those fine Suits which went yesterday like hot cakes.

There is little need to speak glowingly of these Suits, for they sell themselves at the ridiculous sold with price asked—$14. They are guarthe loss. anteed custom made, of imported texture.

How can we afford it? We want the advertising. Every purchaser of a Suit or Overcoat at $14 "talks us up" fifty dollars' worth.

The Suits and Overcoats were made to sell for $30 and $35. Merchant tailors ask $40 and $50 for these same garments.

The Overcoats are superlative values. They are thrown in with those exquisite Cheviot, Worsted, and Cassimere Suits to make things lively.

Whoever has experimented in the ourchase of a heavy Winter Overcoat for a very low price knows that it's not much of a garment one usually gets for as little as $7.50.

We haven't cared to make a Chinchilla Overcoat for less than $15, but at that price we have been selling an excellent all-wool, fast-color, wellmade Overcoat, black or blue. What's left of them have been reduced to $7.50, just one-half; hence, here is an opportunity to buy a good-looking and serviceable Overcoat for the price of the poorest kind.

As good, if not a better, bargain is offered in the eighteen-dollar Overcoats we have reduced to $12.50.
